

Pulse Therme Banská

The image shows the exterior of a modern building with a prominent sign. The building's facade is composed of horizontal wooden slats in a warm brown tone, interspersed with sections of grey stone masonry. Large, rectangular glass windows are set into the wooden cladding, reflecting the surrounding greenery and sky. A dark, flat roofline runs along the top of the building. In the foreground, a paved area and a blurred patch of green grass are visible. A modern, grey lamppost with a white, curved light fixture stands to the left of the building. The overall scene is brightly lit under a clear blue sky.

Pulse Terme Banská

The image shows the exterior of the Pulse Therme Bansko spa complex during the twilight hours. A wide, polished stone walkway leads from the foreground towards the entrance. On either side of the path are swimming pools with vibrant blue water. The pools are bordered by grey stone walls and have modern metal handrails. In the background, the main building features a dark facade with large glass windows and doors, and a prominent 'Pulse' sign above the entrance. The building's upper levels are clad in blue stone tiles, and vertical wooden slats are integrated into the design. The overall atmosphere is serene and modern.
